Attendees: Weian Liu, Zixuan Li, Daming Chen, Emmanuel Philipose Antony, Silin Ren.

1 Apologies

None.

2 Review of the Last Meeting

- Dr.Li's feedback on the prototype design:
    o Homepage's navigation bar design should adhere to best practices (sidebar and buttons).
    o Create a Contact Us section in the footer.
    o Login and registration process will be intuitive with clear instruction and error messages.
    o Login and Registration design will be on the same page instead of different pages for both.
    o User watchlist have ability to filter movies based on genre using tags (Horror, Action, etc).
    o Watchlist be implemented so that the user be able to browse through all of movies added there and a shortcut to that implemented in the navigation bar.
- Milestone definition:
    o Milestone one includes Complete environment setup, basic front-end and back-end architecture, and static design for the homepage and movie details page (with placeholder content).
    o Milestone two achieves full development and integration of front-end and back-end with completed testing.
    o Dr. Li suggested parallel development of front-end and back-end to identify potential issues at the earliest.
- Business Case:
    o First part be focusing on drafting a complete business plan and stick to two pages.
    o Second part should focus on Milestone 1 definition with achievable goals.
    o Revenue generation methods not required.
    o Clear and readable formatting suggested.

3 Requirements Elicitation

- Provide development progress and request review for Back-End: Integration of Back End and Database. Data from API allocated to MongoDB database.
- Provide development progress and request review for Front-End: Implementation of all required routing. Development progress of requisite layout reflecting across pages such as Homepage, Movie Description, User Profile, Settings including sidebar and Navigation bar (styling required). Login page having different layout than the rest.
- Q & A session.

4 Other Issues

None.

Note: The next client meeting will be held on 29 April 2025.
